HEALTH CONDITIONS & DIETARY RESTRICTIONS

A critical success factor in completing the programs at San Francisco Cooking School is regularly tasting and evaluating food that is prepared as part of the curriculum. If you are not able to participate in this portion of the coursework you may not be able to fulfill the graduation requirements.

Do you have any health conditions or dietary restrictions that would affect your ability to taste food as part of the program? Yes No

If you answered "Yes", please provide us with detailed information, below, regarding any condition(s) that would affect your participation in the tasting portion of the programs:

ESSAY: PERSONAL STATEMENT + LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION

Attach a typed essay of 400-500 words describing your experience and interest in the foodservice field.

Your personal statement should include a discussion of why you are applying to culinary school, your future goals, and how successful completion of the Culinary Arts or Pastry & Baking Arts Certificate Program at San Francisco Cooking School will help you achieve these objectives.

SFCS requires two (2) professional recommendations, which should be submitted by your recommenders directly via this form: <http://bit.ly/SFCSRecLetter>. These can come from a manager, co-worker, client, professional mentor, or if you are currently a student or have recently graduated, a teacher or administrator. These references help us get to know your work habits and professional manner and should not speak to your kitchen skills.

SELECT YOUR CONCENTRATION

Each student should select an academic concentration. This selection does not affect your primary curriculum but may impact some optional field trips or guest speakers, and will eventually help with your externship placement.

Please select your concentration from the list below. We will confirm this selection approximately two-thirds of the way into the classroom portion of the program, prior to your externship placement. Your concentration may be changed at that time.

- RESTAURANT OR BAKERY
- FOOD MEDIA (COOKBOOK WRITING, RECIPE DEVELOPMENT, OR FOOD STYLING)
- FOOD ENTREPRENEURSHIP

For more information about concentrations, please visit the Culinary Arts or Pastry & Baking Arts pages at www.sfcooking.com.

APPLICATION FEE

A nonrefundable application fee of $50 is required with your completed application and will be applied to the total cost of your tuition. The application fee should be processed online: sfcooking.com/pro-payments
